NEW YORK PORT CLOSED 5 HOURS AS PRECAUTION

British Liner Flashed Warning as it Nears
Sandy Hook

SUBMARINE FIRST SIGHTED ON SATURDAY

Passengers Ordered to Life Boats When Sea
Terror Approached

(International News Service.)

New York, Aug. 6.—The port of New York was officially closed to in going and outgoing shipping for five hours today, following reports that a German submarine was prowling off the harbor. The report was sent to the government port officials by a British liner approaching the Atlantic coast, and the first information stated that the outline of a U-boat had been seen 18 miles off Sandy Hook light.

The navy yard would not comment on the situation this afternoon, and whether the report of the presence of a U-boat off the coast was confirmed, could not be learned. One of the passengers on the incoming liner reported that life boats were swung out on the vessel and the 100 passengers ordered into them. It is reported the British ship first sighted the U-boat Saturday evening when about 400 miles off New York harbor.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN DRAFT RIOTS OUT IN OKLAHOMA

STERN MEASURES TAKEN TO SUP-PRESS MEN WHO RESIST THE GOVERNMENT.

(International News Service.)

Oklahoma City, Aug. 6.—Governor R. L. Williams this afternoon issued a statement to the International News Service in which he declared that every county in the state is loyal to the national government.

"The anti-draft disturbances have been greatly exaggerated. Without the aid of either state or federal troops the civil officers have succeeded in quieting the matters and it is under full control."

(International News Service.)

Oklahoma City, Aug. 6.—Demands from citizens for troops were renewed today, following the slaying of two men in battles between draft resisters and posses last night. The men killed were Edward Blaylock and J. F. Moose. John Paige and Henry Johnson were injured. Between two and three hundred prisoners have been captured by the posses.

(International News Service.)

Holdenville, Okla., Aug. 6.—Twenty-six draft resisters known as members of the "Working Class Union," were reported this afternoon to be surrounded by officers eight miles from here. Reinforcements have been sent to the scene.

(International News Service.)

Shawnee, Okla., Aug. 6.—Draft resisters are reported to be burning and dynamiting bridges and other property south of here today. A posse of 25 left on a Rock Island special for Romulus, Okla.

NEW NATIONAL ARMY WILL BE CALLED IN INCREMENTS

Hundred Thousand Will Be Taken at a Time. Farmers to Harvest Their Crops

(International News Service.)

Washington, Aug. 6.—The new national army will be called out in increments and not as a unit of 500,000 men. This was made plain today by Provost Marshal General Crowder in instructing local boards they might grant temporary discharges to men engaged in harvesting crops.

These men, he ruled, could enter service when their work in the fields was done.

Probably five increments of 100,000 men will be called at intervals of from one to two weeks. No date has been fixed for the first increment. It is highly probable, however, the first men will be called before Sept. 1.

GERMAN MONUMENT IS DESTROYED

The Germans usually have been alone in the destruction of things sacred, but French forbearance has been tried so that it could not countenance leaving standing a huge monument erected to German dead in a cemetery at Chauny in French territory. The French destroyed the monument with dynamite.

Kentucky Troops Are Called Out to Protect Blacks

(International News Service.)

Clay, Ky., Aug. 6.—Two companies of the Kentucky militia, provided with machine guns, were stationed in Webster county today to prevent the recurrence of race riots which cost the lives of three negroes yesterday.

Boy Scouts to Give Benefit at The Y. M. C. A.

In recognition of the splendid service which they have rendered the public on various occasions, Secretary Thompson, assistant scout master, has arranged for the Albany Boy Scouts to give a benefit ice cream supper on the lawn of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening of this week. Those who care to donate either cake or cream, should notify Secretary Thompson at once. The Scouts have aided actively in entertaining conventions, and in many other ways have rendered gratuitous public service. The benefit is to raise funds for their annual encampment, so that they may have a little joy of their own.

Senator Reed Attacks the Food Control Bill

Pacifist From Missouri Claims Hoover is a Lobbyist.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Aug. 6.—Senator Reed, of Missouri, renewed his attack on the food control bill this afternoon with charges that Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator, is maintaining a lobby, "impudently interfering with the legislation of congress." He charged the administration as "an infamous dictatorship."

WAR BILLS GROW BIGGER EVERY DAY

(International News Service.)

Washington, Aug. 6.—The United States has hardly commenced to pay its war bills. Many additional billions of dollars will be required. Solemn warning of this fact came today from the senate finance committee favorably reporting the new tax bill designed to raise $2,000,000,000 by direct tax. The committee made it plain that this was only the beginning.

DR. GRAU HEARD IN FINAL SERMON BY LARGE AUDIENCE AT UNION SERVICES

PASTOR OF WESTMINSTER PRES-BYTERIAN CHURCH HAS AC-CEPTED CALL TO CHURCH AT BEAVER DAM, MICH.

PLEADS FOR MORE SUNSHINE

SINCE COMING HERE THREE YEARS AGO RETIRING PASTOR HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN VARIOUS CAPACITIES. ORGANIZED PAS-TORS' UNION.

Toward the close of his inspiring sermon at the large open air meeting held on the Y. M. C. A. lawn last night, Rev. E. Lysander Grau, former pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, and now on his way to his new pastorate at Beaver Dam, Mich., said: "Every Christian should be a manufacturer of sunshine. And it is no little thing to be always pleasant in our intercourse with our fellows. The world is not reading the Old Book much now, but it is reading your life and my life. It is true as the text says, that we spend our lives as a tale that is told. We are soon forgotten, but our work remains. Moses is still legislating; David is still singing, and Paul is still preaching. Empty lives are useless. The lives of them are like men who write on the water and sow seeds on the rocks. Living is not passing with leaden feet about the mere duties of keeping soul and body united or in the pleasures and happiness of the day. Life is a preparatory school. My brothers and sisters, it is possible for each of us to live upright and valuable lives. All things work together to develop character. Death is commencement day. It is only the soul's moving day. From the place of our pilgrimage we are to move into our eternal abode. From our hotel life here we will move to our home above. The church militant will become the church triumphant. Death is the day of adjustment; at that time Dives receives his reward, and Lazarus his. 'Eye hath not seen, ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of the good things God hath prepared for them that love Him.' Jesus said, and Jesus knows, 'Behold I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also. Now are we sons of God, but it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him.' That we may all sit together in the heavenly home is my prayer."

S. S. Institute Opens Tomorrow

Superintendents, teachers and members of the Willoughby, West Side and Westminster churches are especially invited to the Sunday school institute Tuesday and Wednesday at the Westminster church. Some of the leading Presbyterian workers of the state will address the meeting, including representatives from the conference at Avoca.

In the program announced last week the following corrections are made: "The World Kingdom," Miss Ellen Groenendyke. "A Missionary Story," Miss Ione Clark, instead of Miss Pansy Russell.

J. S. Patterson's Store Entered, Goods Taken

The store of J. S. Patterson on Bank street was burglarized last night and goods valued at $40 or more were stolen. The robbers pried open the back door and made entrance. Two pairs of shoes, a suit of clothes, a shirt, a suit case and a leather hand bag were missing this morning and probably other goods. Mr. Patterson did not know of the burglary until he came down to open up this morning. No clue was left to implicate the thief.

Father Gives Four Sons to the Army; Would Go Himself

Of the many fathers of Morgan county who will send sons to the war, it is probable that R. L. Worley has been called on for the greatest display of patriotism. Mr. Worley now has three sons in the army, and a fourth, Daniel F. Worley, formerly of Company E, is included in the first call and will be examined here Friday.

The Worley boys now in the service are:
John W. Worley, headquarters sergeant, Fourth Alabama Infantry.

Earl C. Worley, corporal, Company E, Fourth Alabama Infantry.
Marvin L. Worley, Company I, Kentucky Infantry.

Daniel F. Worley, who is to go before the Morgan county selection board, is well known locally as a high diver. He is also credited with being an expert marksman, and wears a gold pin which he won in a competitive shoot while in the Alabama national guard.

"I am ready to go myself if needed," declared the father of the four Worley boys, who is 48 years of age and a valued employee of the Life-Taylor Grain Company.

GERMANS PREPARE TO RETAKE GROUND LOST IN BELGIUM

Incessant Artillery Fire Indicates General Attack to be Made

RUSS RESISTANCE IS STIFFENING

At the Same Time, Teutons are Reported to Have Invaded Bessarabia

(International News Service.)

London, Aug. 6.—Prince Rupprecht's German forces in West Flanders made a number of powerful thrusts during the night in an effort to win back some of their lost second line positions, but the war office stated that all were repulsed. Heavy fighting centers around Westhoek and Hollebeke, where attacks were made with strong forces, the Germans struggling forward over a field of slippery mud.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Aug. 6.—Acting Secretary of State Polk today announced receipt by the department of a telegram from Russia stating in effect that Kerensky has again taken hold of affairs as dictator.

(International News Service.)

London, Aug. 6.—The stiffening of the morale of the Russian armies on the eastern front is being seen today in the sturdier resistance which the Russians now are putting up against the Germans and Austro-Hungarians.

Already good results are being received from the drastic policies adopted by Dictator Kerensky and his loyal generals.

(International News Service.)

Paris, Aug. 6.—"The Germans are bombarding the new positions of the British in Belgium incessantly, apparently intending to make a general attack in an effort to recapture at least a part of their second line," wired the correspondent of the Parisien today.

(International News Service.)

Geneva, Aug. 6.—It was reported from Berlin today that Austro-German forces have crossed the Galician frontier into the Russian province of Bessarabia in the Ranczo-Dojan sector. The report is not officially confirmed.

(Note:—If the report is true it means that the Teutons have entered the Bessarabia province for the first time since the war began, although they have made a number of efforts to do so.)

PEACE TALK HEARD IN GERMAN EMPIRE AGAIN.

(International News Service.)

Amsterdam, Aug. 6.—While it has not been officially confirmed that Dr. Kuhlmann will succeed Dr. Alfred Zimmermann as German foreign minister, the Pan-German press has already begun to attack him on the ground that his foreign policy might be too "lenient."

In view of the peace agitation that is current in Germany and Austro-Hungary, the changes that are being made in the German government are regarded as extremely important.

Reports that peace terms will be announced at Berlin and Vienna in the not distant future were strengthened by an article in the Vossische Courant. After setting out other testimony, the paper said: "We saw a letter today from a big German manufacturer who had often visited the Kaiser, saying that peace can be expected speedily. Another German of considerable importance declared that Germany does not intend to begin a new winning campaign because the country is not able to carry it through."

There is every indication that peace overtures by the central powers will be rejected by the allies unless they include the restoration of all territory overrun by the central powers since the war began, the cession of Alsace-Lorraine to France and Trieste to Italy and the payment of an indemnity.

46 Miners Dead At Clay, Kentucky

Clay, Ky., Aug. 6.—The death list in the coal mine disaster here will be 46. With 31 bodies recovered, hope was given up for the 15 miners still entombed in the mine.

Lone Cow Derails L. & N. Train; Ten Cars and Mogul are Ditched

Just a cow knocked a freight train off the track this morning at Annis, Tenn., about 16 miles north of Lewisburg, on the Lewisburg division of the L. & N., causing the engine and ten cars to tumble over into the ditch. After the engine jumped the track it rode the rails long enough for the engineer and fireman to jump. Beyond minor bruises they were uninjured.

A wrecking crew from the L. & N. shops here and one from Nashville track it rode the rails long enough for the engineer and fireman to jump. Beyond minor bruises they were uninjured.

HOME GUARD NOW IS BADLY NEEDED.

The Alabama National Guard has passed. It is, for present purposes, equally as extinct as the Dodo. At midnight Saturday it was mustered into the federal service and is no longer subject to the control of the state. Henceforth, it will take its orders direct from the president of the United States, not from the governor of Alabama. To all intents and purposes it is just as "regular" as the regular army.

The new order of things has left the commonwealth without military protection. Should a mob grow reckless, should disorder on a large scale prevail, there is no organized military force that can be called on to act quickly and effectively. Under conditions like these, the value of a home guard is accentuated. In times like these, the absolute need of a home guard is keenly felt.

This being true, and what thoughtful man can controvert it, the course mapped out for the home guard is clear and evident. The home guard is to take the place of the men who have gone to the front. It is to be the guardian of the loved ones who are left behind. The guardsmen are to be ready when emergency calls to uphold the hands of the regular officers of the law. It is the duty of every citizen to give the guard encouragement and support.

TOM WATSON AGAIN, DEFIES THE LIGHTNING.

Tom Watson, the Georgia editor, former Populist leader, defender of the Franklynian and generally recognized opponent of the present order of things, is again daring the lightning to strike him. Mr. Watson has assumed the leadership of the draft resisters and has announced, according to press dispatches, that he has been tendered the use of funds with which to test the constitutionality of the conscription law. His action, while within the pale of the law, is one that will have a disastrous effect, no doubt, for many of his blind followers. It will get Mr. Watson, the shrewd attorney, additional free publicity. It will likely get some of the "goober grabbers" of Georgia into prison or before a firing squad for treason. They do not know how to don a legal helmet. Mr. Watson does.

Some of these days the Honorable Watson's foot will slip and he will be called on to pay the penalty of his intolerance of conditions that are reasonably satisfactory to most everybody else. It is entirely possible that even now he is on the brink of the precipice. To counsel sedition—and in practical effect that is what he is doing—is as dangerous as playing with fire.

"I can see the sunshine of victory just ahead," Premier Lloyd George of England, is quoted as saying. How nice if he could point it out to George Creel, the official American press agent.

For the conservation of consonants, it is to be hoped that the Russians will permit Kerensky to remain as premier.

It can't be said that the "marriage slacker" refuses to respond to every call to arms.

Congress won't even pass the food bill.

The organized resistance to the draft in Oklahoma has about run its course. This was but another instance of where leaders, themselves more or less ignorant of the seriousness of their offense, led the uninformed of their communities into danger of the gravest kind. These leaders, dreamers of the wild and woolly brand, are reported to have been inspired by the disaffection in Russia to attempt a wholesale pillaging and plundering that would enrich themselves and their followers. The leaders should be shot and their followers given well selected locations in the front trenches. After the war is over, a few good schools in these rioting districts would be most effective agencies for stimulating the latent love of country that every American has.

Post Office Employees Are Not Exempted

The clerk and carrier force of the Albany and Decatur postoffices will not be exempted from military duty unless they have physical defects or have dependent relatives, according to a recent ruling of the postoffice department at Washington.

Thus five carriers of the Decatur office who hitherto were under the impression that they would be exempt because of their occupations, will have to present some other claim or be selected for service. They are O. O. Simms, Willie Mosely, Ralph White, Gorman Jones and Lonnie Johnson. Simms and White were drawn in the first call. Jones will enter the second officers' training camp.

In the Albany office, the postmaster, T. H. Alexander, and City Carrier S. E. Ryan are within the draft ages.

THE STAG.

Mr. Webster informs us that the stag is an animal; a deer—but we know better, and refuse to accept such a definition. We do agree though on one point. The stag is a deer (the book says "deer" but we are certain that that mistake belongs to the printer).

According to what we know, and believe us, we know lots of things, the stag is an entirely different creature from what Mr. Webster believes. To our notion, the stag is a handsome young fellow (not necessarily young, but nearly always, because the older fellows have wives and that prevents them from being stags)—a handsome young fellow who attends dances and parties all by his lonesome.

You can always tell a stag by the way he isn't always looking around to see if someone is watching him. He is genial, free and easygoing, and usually occupies the space around the edge of a dance pavilion, forming a sort of border decoration.

It is quite natural that the stag should be a genial, easygoing sort of fellow. For he can make love to all the girls, "break in" whenever he gets ready, stroll with his best friend's girl during intermission, and when the dance is over, be at home, in bed, and "sawing wood," while the "regular fellows" whose girls furnished him entertainment, are waiting at the end of a car line in hopes that the fast car hasn't gone in yet, and after deciding that it has, turns right about face and "hoofs it" over a long and dismal stretch to his own humble domicile.

And the thoughts which accompany him homeward are not always complimentary to the stag who is sleeping so peacefully while he trudges onward. But why shouldn't the stag sleep with a clear conscience? He has no policy to play. He is a privileged character and no one dares question his actions.

But—is he really fair? Is it just and right that he should monopolize the girls of the other fellow, who spends extra time and money in his thoughtfulness of her? Is it right that he should break up happy little romances with his meaningless flirtations? And is it fair that so many dear, pretty and deserving little girls should sit at home while he goes alone? The balance is wrong somewhere.

After all, we believe Mr. Webster must be right. The stag may be a deer, but the "regular fellow" is the real "deer." And when the stag decides that the best and fairest way is to "take a girl," then we will vote unanimously that he, too is a "deer."

Delightful Calomel Latest Discovery Now On Sale Here

The Nauseating and Dangerous Qualities Have Been Entirely Removed—Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Calotabs the New Name.

What will human ingenuity do next? Smokeless powder, wireless telegraphy, horseless carriages, colorless iodine, tasteless quinine—now comes nauseateless calomel. The new improvement called "Calotabs" is now on sale at local drug stores and is the sensation of the year in the drug trade.

For biliousness, constipation and indigestion the new calomel tablet is a practically perfect remedy, as evidenced by the fact that the manufacturers have authorized all druggists to refund the price if the customer is not "perfectly delighted" with Calotabs. One tablet at bedtime, a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no nausea, no griping. By morning your liver is thoroughly cleansed and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite. Eat what you please—no danger—go about your business.

Calotabs are not sold in bulk. Get an original package, sealed. It contains twenty doses; price thirty-five cents. (Adv.)

Dr. Grau Heard In Final Sermon

the warmth of affection in which the retiring minister is held.

Dr. Grau began his sermon by saying that in the three and a half years he had been pastor of the Westminster church he had striven to put Christianity first, and denominations second. His text was the 90th Psalm: "We spend our years as a tale that is told."

"What is life? The book of life, and the lessons of life" were the three divisions of the sermon. The speaker quoted several life definitions. Webster said life was a period between birth and death. Lucian, the Hindu philosopher, said life was one riding the rough sea billows, with his glory reflected in heaven above for a moment. Herbert Spencer said: "Life is a definite combination of heterogeneous changes simultaneous and accretive, in correspondence with environment." The speaker taught that however we define it, life is real and earnest. In his second division, the preacher described childhood, youth, middle life and old age. "All life, if life at all, is a love story," said the speaker, "for what is life without love? Without it the home is empty, the life weary and the heart desolate." In his discussion of his last division—the lessons of life—the speaker depended largely on scripture quotations to sustain the truths that he spoke.

Last night's meeting on the Y. M. C. A. lawn, as were the other open air services held at the same hour, was largely attended, and anticipating this, Dr. Thompson, secretary of the Association, had prepared a number of additional benches. The song service, as usual, was on a high plane. The duet by Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Pickens, "Oh, Morning Light," was especially enjoyed by the congregation, as was also the solo, "The Lord is My Life," by William Owens. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Pickens sang together at the special request of Dr. Grau, their former pastor.

Dr. Grau, an Active Worker. Soon after Mr. Grau came to Albany, some three and a half years ago, he was active in the organization of the Albany-Decatur Pastors' Union, and was president of the organization at the time of his departure. He was a commissioner of his church at the General Assembly held in Dallas, Texas, this spring, and has always taken an active interest in general work of the church at large. He was chairman of the board of foreign missions of the Huntsville Presbytery and secretary of the Southern Chatauqua of his church as held this year at Tallahoma, Tenn.

German Frightfulness Older Than Nietzsche

(Birmingham News.)

It has been frequently set out in articles upon the atrocious methods of warfare practiced by the Germans that Nietzsche's philosophy of force and frightfulness has been their inspiration. Undoubtedly he popularized and disseminated that philosophy more effectively than any other German thinker. But it transpires that Nietzsche himself merely put into philosophical form the practices long characteristic of Prussian soldiers.

A writer in The New York Times calls attention to several quotations from history sustaining this view. After the battle of Waterloo, Robert Southey thus describes a visit to Belgium:

You will be rejoiced to hear that English are well spoken of for their deportment in peace and war. It is far otherwise with the Prussians. Concerning them there is but one opinion; of their brutality and intolerable insolence I have had but too many proofs.

In that connection it must be recalled that Prussia and England were allies at that time against Napoleon. The natural prejudice of Southey and other English critics should have been favorable to the Prussians.

Along the same line is the view of the Duke of Wellington, who, writing to his mother, thus describes the operation of the German legion:

I can assure you that from the general of the Germans down to the smallest drummer boy in their legion the earth never groaned with such a lot of murdering, infamous villains. They murdered, robbed, and ill-treated the peasantry wherever they went.

So there is official authority as to the Prussians one hundred years ago. It is also recalled that Wellington had difficulty in restraining Blucher from looting the Bank of France.

Of course, the progress of civilization has made its impression on the character of the average German soldier, but unfortunately he is under the control of his officers, and they under the instruction of the general staff at Berlin, dominated by the Kaiser. The public knows his instructions in a public speech some years ago to his troops going to China, to make the name of Germany a terror to the enemy.

Hence, it is clear that the old ruthless brutality of the Prussian in warfare is perpetuated and enforced on the German army today by their highest military authorities. This makes it all the plainer that the Kaiser's autocracy, the German system, must be annihilated before there can be any peace in the world, any safety for the United States.

THE FANS WENT DOWN.

"No, we have no small palm leaf fans, for the very good reason that the U-boats got them," said Manager Hubbard of the local McLellan Store. "The palm leaf fan is imported from France, and the consignment shipped to our chain of stores happened to be on one of the merchant vessels sunk by a submarine. "SCOOPED" BY THE DAILY.

"I just wanted to call your attention to a story published in a metropolitan morning paper of Saturday that told of a meeting to be held in Berlin, an account of what transpired at the meeting being published in Friday's Daily," said W. "I have noticed this frequently—that the morning papers of the following day carry front page accounts of happenings published in the Daily of the day before. It pleases me to note the enterprise of the Daily, which I consider the best paper of its size in the state."

THOUGHT.

Yesterday was mine. No longer now I own it.
Tomorrow may be mine. And much I might do with it,
But neither day that now is past, nor day that is to be,
Concerns me as today concerns. To-day holds out to me
Another chance. Today is mine. To-day—Oh, much it means,
Whether its spending be among dull gray or glad some scenes,
To make it count; to waste it not; To keep it clean of stain or blot
To spend it working worthily, And sturdily and smilingly—
To do this is to make today Another step of onward way.
—Kate Langley Bosher.

SELECTION BOARD IS BUSY AGAIN

BEGINS TASK OF LISTING MEN NOT INCLUDED IN THE FIRST CALL.

The Morgan county selection board today resumed the task of checking the remainder of the names of the men subject to draft from the official list, so that they may determine the order in which the entire 3212 men will be called. This list, when completed, will be published in the Daily in full.

The board will begin the examination of first call men Wednesday. The examinations will continue through Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Today the officers of the board were again crowded with men eager to ascertain information regarding exemptions.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN DRAFT RIOTS

few weeks, have caused local officials to fear that trouble may arise here over the draft.

(International News Service.)

Ada, Okla., Aug. 6.—With a total of 19 resisters under arrest and scores of guns confiscated, authorities today felt that armed resistance against the draft was at an end here.

Letter Writing.

De Quincey advised "all who would rise to our noble language in its native beauty, racy in its phraseology, delicate yet sinewy in its composition, to steal the mail bags and break open the letters in female handwriting!"

After reading this it was not a surprise to find that credit is given for the invention of letter writing to a woman—a woman of royalty—the Persian princess, Alossa. According to one of the old writers, this invention was a marvelous "easement" to the absent lover and anxious friend.

Southey said, "A letter is like a fresh billet of wood upon the fire, which, if it be not needed for immediate warmth, is always agreeable for its exhilarating effect."

In her "Sonnets From the Portuguese" Mrs. Browning says:
My letters! All dead papers, mute and white,
And yet they seem alive and quivering—
Against my tremulous hands which loose the string
And let them drop down on my knees to-night.

—Los Angeles Times.

Hurled Into Sunshine.
"I was in Petrograd just after the revolution, during the first appraisal of the new assets," writes Isaac F. Marcossian in Everybody's. "Like prisoners long immured in the dark and suddenly hurled into the sunshine, the people blinked in the strange light of their unfamiliar emancipation. The one time balliwick of the czars was a study in scarlets—animate like an American city during a national convention. Its great thoroughfare—the Nevski Prospekt—once the street of sacrifice, was now the highway of happiness. Never was there such glad reunion. It was like the meeting of lost tribes after much wandering in the wilderness. Exiles streamed in from Siberia under the general amnesty; Jews came forth from their long restraint, for creed lines were down; delegations of troops flocked from the front. Equality was the password that loosed every tongue."

OFFICERS' CAMPS BEGIN AUG. 27TH

APPLICANTS TO RECEIVE NOTICE TO REPORT ON AUGUST 10.

Birmingham, Aug. 6.—Lieutenant Wallis returned from Montgomery yesterday, where he has been examining applicants from the southern part of the state for the second officers' training camp, that will begin on August 27 at Fort Oglethorpe. The successful applicants will be notified August 10.

Lieutenant Wallis stated that not enough good men had applied for the full quota of the state to be filled. The original number awarded Alabama was 368, and later instructions were issued that recruiting officers might increase their quotas 50 per cent if they wished. This brought the number that might be sent from Alabama to 460 men, but as the instructions did not stipulate that the full number must be sent, Lieutenant Wallis has decided that he will send only about 400. The total number that sent in applications was about 1,400, but 70 of these that were classified as good men withdrew their applications after the draft lists were published. The time has now expired, and no more applications will be considered.

Guards Drill Tonight Instead of Tuesday

Major Malone Calls for Full Attendance. To Select Uniforms.

Due to an important business engagement for tomorrow night, Maj. Malone has called a meeting of the Albany home guard for tonight at 8 o'clock at the Armory. At this meeting, it is expected that a sample uniform that is to be sent by an eastern manufacturer, will be on hand for inspection, and a decision will be reached as to whether it meets with requirements.

Major Malone stated today that the full attendance of the guard is desired. Members who have not been attending drill exercises are especially urged to be present. It is stressed that if members do not attend, other measures may be employed to induce them to remember their oath of obligation.

Members are especially urged by Major Malone to give their personal support to the things the guards are trying to accomplish—drilling and guard duty.

Recruits Falling Off; Waiting For Draft

The Decatur recruiting station, in charge of Sergeant Ball, did not receive a single recruit yesterday or today up to noon.

For the past ten days from five to ten applicants have been received each day. The falling off is thought to be due to the fact that the men in the first call have received their notices to appear for examination, making it too late for them to enlist voluntarily. Others in subsequent calls are waiting to see whether they are in the list, before they volunteer.

Corporal Watson Young, of the local station, is in Athens this week looking for recruits.

Newman & Newman, with the Merry Casino Girls, at Masonic All Week.

AMUSEMENTS

NEWMAN BACK AT BONITA.

Newman and Newman, headed by Frank Newman as manager and doing straight, were so well liked that after only a few weeks they have returned to the Bonita, and played to big business all this week. The bill is "The Black Lieutenant," which is new and in which Mr. Newman plays the lead.

Sue and Billy Lightelle, in their specialties, using their own songs, at the Bonita this week, are a scream. Billy is a born dancer and his comedy in "The Black Lieutenant" is splendid. Sue Lightelle is the soubrette and a clever little lady in her line. Their dancing is the best seen here in some time and never fails to bring applause.

The roster of the Newman show is

Frank Newman, straight; Billy Lightelle, principal comedy; Billy Wallace, second comedy; Pearl Derby, soubrette; Ellen Best, Dixie Wagner, Lula Best and Sue Lightelle, chorus, each of whom is capable of leading numbers.

The music is under the capable direction of Paul Forsythe. Film and Stage, Atlanta, Ga.

Newman's Merry Casino Girls Co. opens at the Masonic theatre tonight for a week's engagement.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

An Apology—And An Explanation

We feel that we owe an explanation to the thousands of Paige enthusiasts and prospective Paige owners whose choice is The Most Beautiful Car in America, but who have been unable to secure prompt deliveries.

The Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company has not failed to keep up with its production schedule. As a matter of fact we have already far exceeded the schedule we planned for ourselves last December.

Since January 1st we have been working our huge manufacturing equipment to full capacity. But in spite of these efforts we have never been for one day caught up with the demand for The Most Beautiful Car in America.

It is a significant fact that in the month of July just closed—a period unsettled by war conditions—the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company was able to fill only 58 per cent of the actual orders placed during that month.

There Must Be Good Reasons For This Overwhelming Popularity

The explanation is plain and unescapable. This unprecedented demand for The Most Beautiful Car in America is inspired by Paige mechanical excellence.

The greatest motoring value is the sum and substance of this explanation. With its mechanical excellence, its beauty, its durability, the Paige is easily sold and—most important of all—it stays sold.

This shortage in Paige cars is not merely a local condition. It is national. If you question this statement go to your nearest Paige dealer and he will confirm it.

But there are other reasons for Paige popularity. They go back of mechanical excellence, beauty and excess values. They are fundamental because they make such things possible. We refer to the sound economic and financial policies that are the foundation of the Paige structure.

In percentage of sales increase, The Most Beautiful Car in America has outstripped all competitors between $1000 and $2000 in price for the last six months.

Paige sales in proportion to Paige capitalization are many times greater than those of any car in the same competitive field.

The Paige has built conservatively, soundly. It has no bonded indebtedness. It has been content with a modest profit per car.

The Paige has had the money to create quality in each and every car it has built. The excess value that has been put into The Most Beautiful Car in America has won the confidence and preference of the American public.

This greater value has brought to the Paige a supremacy that has stood unchallenged during the last few months of unsettled economic conditions.

Such overwhelming popularity has made it necessary for us to apologize to you for any delay you may suffer or may have suffered in the delivery of your car.

But is it not worth while waiting for a motor car that is at once the most popular, as well as The Most Beautiful Car in America?
